

International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society

The International Society for Parkinson's disease and other Movement Disorders representing and serving clinicians, scientists, and other healthcare professionals.

International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society brings to clinicians the latest developments and practical advice for the diagnosis and treatment of all Movement Disorders and related neurological matters;

~
Offers an international forum for sharing new developments in basic and clinical research in Movement Disorders;

~
Publishes the preeminent clinical and research journal, Movement Disorders, using print, video, DVD and electronic formats;

~
Creates professional liaisons with other regional and subspecialty organization for unifying the many disciplines represented in the field of Movement Disorders.

This certificate recognizes that is a member of the International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society.

Iulia Elena Petre, MD

Date

4/25/2017-12/31/2026

Member ID

53071

